The College has been fortunate over the past several years to attract well-known guest lecturers such as Terry Anderson (Prisoner of War); Zev Kedem (Holocaust survivor); Paval Palazchenko (Gorbachev's English interpreter); Scott Ritter (United Nations' weapons inspector); John Douglas (former FBI agent); Betty Mahmood (Pulitzer Prize-Nominated author); Rani Arbo and Daisy Mayhem (musicians); Robert Kurson (New York Times' best selling author); Ann Hagedorn (author); Paxton Quigley (self-defense expert and empowerment specialist); Linda Robinson (U.S. News and World Report senior writer); Micah Garen and Marie Helene Carleton (photojournalists and authors); Dr. Spencer Wells of National Geographic (geneticist); the international exhibit of Wang Dingji (Chinese artist); a host of musical groups such as The Ron Jones Quartet and The University of Cincinnati - College Conservatory of Music's Classical Guitar Ensemble; as well as dramatic portrayals by Women in History.

Aside from gathering talent from other parts of the country, the College is proud to have its own talented entertainment pool. Musicians, singers, entertainers, actors, and actresses from here in southern Ohio often showcase their gifts through exhibitions, theatrical performances, concerts, and other events sponsored by the College. A team of qualified and dedicated faculty and staff members are instrumental in providing these opportunities for students to demonstrate their talents while also providing a valuable source of entertainment to the community.
