President’s Report

President Boys welcomed those in attendance and thanked them for coming. He indicated two trustees were not able to attend due to surgeries. In addition to his written report (link provided below), Dr. Boys:

- Welcomed and introduced J.R. Roush, who, as stated in his Written Report (link provided below), will serve as SSCC’s new Dean of Core Studies effective August 2011.
- Announced Southern State Community College has been notified it was awarded a $20,000 Grant from the Dollar General Literacy Foundation, for which Karyn Evans, Dean of the Adult Opportunity Center, had applied. The money will be used for GED programming in Adams County.
- Referenced the Program Development topic under the Academic Affairs section in his Written Report and added the College has been approached by DP&L to develop training programs for anticipated employment needs thus a Memorandum of Understanding has been developed with Manchester School District to offer programming.
As discussions of expansion in Adams County are held, Dr. Boys noted, some programming will already be in place.

- Drew the Board’s attention to the commencement activities listed in his report.
- Recognized Steve Sendelbeck, Mike Smith and Jason Snyder of KZF Architects who delivered a presentation on Facility Assessment, Utilization and Program Analysis. This report will serve as a basis for future facility improvements and expansion efforts. This presentation will be delivered to the faculty and staff next Friday.
