

President's Report to the BOARD OF TRUSTEES

SOUTHERN STATE
COMMUNITY COLLEGE

JANUARY 2013 | DR. KEVIN BOYS, PRESIDENT

Strategic Bold Steps and Goals for 2013

At the Board's extended meeting, the Board will have the opportunity to consider a set of draft bold steps and goals for the new calendar year. This draft was shared at an all-college meeting on Jan. 11 with the understanding that the board would further discuss them at the upcoming meeting. The draft is included with this report.

Higher Learning Commission Accreditation Process

Also at the recent all-college meeting, Dr. Ryan McCall, Vice President of Academic Affairs, and a team of faculty and staff involved in the newly formed accreditation committee, provided an overview of the Higher Learning Commission's new criteria for accreditation and the Open Pathway model of accreditation. An important aspect of this accreditation model is the college's involvement and work on a "Quality Initiative." You will note in the draft 2013 goals that our initial thought is to propose a quality initiative related to student success. The alignment of this important initiative to an anticipated state requirement of a "completion plan," and a new state funding formula rewarding completion will allow the institution to concentrate significant collective effort toward helping our students meet their educational goals.

Annual Ethics Financial Disclosure Statement

College trustees are annually required to submit a financial disclosure statement to the Ohio Ethics Commission. The enclosed form may be filed directly with the Ohio Ethics Commission before April 15, 2013. The college will remit the required fee.

Ohio Means Internships & Co-ops Grant Received

Southern State was awarded a new grant, Ohio Means Partnerships & Co-ops, in partnership with several other partners, including career centers and higher education institutions (see attached letter). The purpose of the grant is to increase the opportunity for internships and co-ops for students in our region. The total amount of the grant is $236,450. Karen Davis, Interim Dean of Technical Studies, was the lead person for Southern State in this process.

Faculty Announcements

Faculty Member Presents at AMS Conference

Jon Davidson, Assistant Professor and Division Coordinator of Physical Science, recently presented at the American Mathematical Society (AMS) national conference. The conference is attended by 6,000 to 7,000 mathematicians. Mr. Davidson presented his research—"Hidden Treasures in 2x2 Linear Systems/Applications of Non-Orthonormal Coordinate Systems"—in a session titled, "Innovative and Effective Ideas in Teaching Linear Algebra." A hearty congratulations goes to Mr. Davidson for being selected to present at this national conference.

SOCHE Faculty Excellence in Teaching Awards

The Southwestern Ohio Council for Higher Education (SOCHE) hosted its annual banquet honoring excellence in teaching. SOCHE member institutions are requested to submit names of faculty members who demonstrate excellence in teaching throughout the past academic year. This year, Southern State is proud to have three faculty members receive the Faculty Excellence in Teaching Awards. Those individuals are: Chyane Collins, Assistant Professor and Director of Respiratory Care; Ken Holliday, Assistant Professor and Division Coordinator of Arts and Humanities; and Dr. David Garippa, Instructor.

Workforce Development and Community Services

Truck Driving Academy

November's enrollment was down slightly compared to last year; however, the December enrollment of 15 is a notable increase over the six and four of the previous two Decembers. New partnerships continue to be sought to boost enrollment. John Joy, Dean of Workforce Development and Community Services, attended a regional LiftEd meeting at Miami Valley Career Center where Barbara Wagner, Director of Adult Education, requested a meeting to discuss a CDL training partnership in Greene County. It was to be scheduled for early January.

The customized training for Warren County Career Center to offer straight truck training for its Lineman Technician program continues. The second group of students completed their training in November and the partnership has been well received by the students and staff at WCCC. The additional revenue has met expectations, and has proven to be of value in the department's improved financial performance in recent months. Discussions are under way with both Pickaway Ross Career and Technology Center and Scioto County Career and Technical Center to offer similar customized training to them in the fall of 2013.

The information session at the Strategic Training Center in South Point on Nov. 8 was a big success, with about 20 potential students attending. Eight students started CDL training at South Point on Dec. 10. An information session, open to the public Dec. 11 at the Delaware Career Center, was not as well attended, but there was enough interest to indicate the first class for Delaware County will be Jan. 22 or Feb. 4.

John Joy and Training Manager Eddie Mullins met with Jane Dunigan, Business Manager of Cincinnati State Workforce Development Center, at CS's new Middletown branch campus on Dec. 18 to discuss offering CDL training at that location to serve residents of Butler County.

Workforce Development

The proposal submitted to PAS Technologies in Hillsboro last October resulted in a plant tour on Nov. 14. Tommy Collingsworth, Adjunct Faculty at SSCC's Fayette Campus, accompanied John Joy on the tour. The discussion that followed indicated that PAS will begin supervisory skills training in January.

Continuing Education & Departmental Notes

The Dental Assistant program, offered in partnership with Boston Reed College, continues. The information session held Dec. 12 for Boston Reed classes—which were planned to start in January 2013—was a huge success. More than 30 people attended, with 19 completing forms indicating their interest in one of the Boston Reed classes. The turnout indicates the interest and demand for short-term, low-cost training that will provide individuals with basic skills and a clear path to entry-level employment in particular fields.

Eighteen participants completed free Connect Ohio computer classes in November, and two completed the classes in December. In recognition of contributions to the Connect Ohio effort over the past two years, six Lexmark printers were given to Southern State at the regional meeting held Nov. 16 in Dayton. The printers will be used as door prizes to incentivize Connect Ohio course completion in January.

Direct Mail Projects

Affordability – With emphasis on the cost of education and the value students experience by choosing Southern State, a direct mail flyer will be sent to nearly 4500 seniors in our surrounding area. Leveraging the previous awareness mailing that was sent to the same target audience in the fall, highlights of this affordability piece include personalized variable data, charts depicting the tuition gap between Southern State and our four-year competition, as well as links to available scholarships. This mailing is expected to reach households in late January.

Parent Mailing – Following the student’s receipt of the affordability mailing (mid/late February), the parents of those seniors will also receive a direct mail piece emphasizing many of the same features but from the perspective of being a parent. As depicted in the image, the intent is to acknowledge the challenges parents sometimes experience when coaching their teenager to make decisions about college. As part of the parent and the student mailings, the call to action is to attend one of several Open House opportunities where families can learn more about Southern State and get started on the application process. Open House programming is being coordinated as a collaborative effort between Student Services and Academics. The schedule for these activities is March 2 (South 9-11 a.m./Central 1-3 p.m.) and March 9 (Fayette 9-11 a.m./North 1-3 p.m.)

New Online Biweekly Newsletter

Designed as a biweekly online newsletter, The Connector is brimming with photos, headlines, spot summaries, upcoming events and hyperlinks, and is delivered in a more interactive format. Every two weeks, a link to the newest edition of The Connector will be available to students, employees, and community partners. The inaugural edition was distributed Jan. 15 and will be archived along with future editions at <http://www.sccc.edu/newsletter/index.shtml>.

Transfer Process

In collaboration with Academics, the collateral used to market the transfer process is being re-envisioned. Using Southern State alumni as the focal point, the transfer brochure and on-campus kiosks are being overhauled to present transferability in a more streamlined fashion. Rather than hosting individual articulation and transfer agreements among various colleges and universities, we are consolidating the information into a single brochure and directing students to the web for more specific information. The image here represents the overall approach of positioning Southern State alumni to be transfer spokespeople.

Foundation

Dayton Power & Light Company Foundation Grant

In late December 2012, the Southern State Foundation received notification that the DP&L Foundation was awarding a $5,000 grant to advance the work done within the college. In cooperation with the Southern State academic division, the financial aid department, and our colleagues within DP&L's Generation Center in Manchester, these funds will be used to recruit and retain students pursuing higher education through this unique partnership.

Consolidation of the Foundation Portfolio

Officers of the Foundation Board met via conference call Dec. 7 to discuss the process of consolidating the investment portfolio into a single investment entity. Currently the Foundation's nearly $1.9 million portfolio is split and managed by Fifth Third Bank Securities and the National Bank and Trust, Trust Division. The process, including the request for proposal and firm interviews will begin in the spring. Ideally, a firm would be selected by the start of the new fiscal year. The Foundation has an established investment policy which will be an integral part of the interview process along with the Foundation Board's interest in quality reporting and the prospective firm's ability to employ diverse investment instruments.

Student Affairs/Enrollment Management

Tutoring Services

Workshops

Computer Fundamentals workshops were held at the Fayette Campus on Dec. 17 and at Central Campus on Dec. 19. Packets containing information about Microsoft Office programs were provided to all new students attending. Sixteen new students and four tutors participated in this hands-on training to better prepare them in creating documents using Word, Excel, and Power Point programs.

Online Success (Blackboard 9) workshops were held at Central and Fayette campuses on Dec. 18 for any student enrolled in an online class. Thirty-two students enrolled in at least one online class and one tutor participated in a simulated online class to learn how to use the navigational tools for successful completion of assignments and tests. The Tutoring Center also addressed the challenges of online learning. Several students commented afterwards that such an orientation should be mandatory before signing up for online courses.

Tutor Training and Appreciation Luncheon

Nineteen tutors completed Level 1 training during three sessions conducted on Nov. 30, Dec. 5, and Dec. 6. Other training sessions will begin in January to bring new tutors on board or finish up current tutors who need to finish Level 1. Once a tutor has finished the training and has conducted 25 hours of actual tutoring, the Tutoring Center will award them Certified Tutor status. They will then have the opportunity to pursue two more levels of certification.

Adjunct Meeting

Timothy Crowder, Workshop Facilitator and Adjunct Instructor, and Susan Long, Coordinator of Tutoring Services, attended the adjunct orientation meeting on Dec. 1 and conducted a session for instructors who teach College Success (Psychology 1108). The new syllabus requires that instructors help students activate student accounts, emails, Blackboard, and teach Microsoft Word, Excel, and PowerPoint skills. The adjuncts were given an overview of the Tutoring Center's Web Tutorials and the Computer Fundamentals workshops. These staff members were invited to attend the Fayette workshop or work with Mr. Crowder to set up a training session to prepare them for teaching the new curriculum. Seven adjuncts teaching the College Success course attended the session.

First Week Activities

Tutoring staff manned tables at each campus on Jan. 7 and 8 to promote tutoring and to direct students to the tutoring labs for web tutorials. Twenty students received web tutorials and 73 tutor requests were received.

Susan Long, Kari Simpson (Mentor Tutor and Writing Lab Associate), Stephanie Bartley (Tutoring Data Specialist) and Adam Foster (Peer Tutor) visited nine classes—six College Success and three English—to promote tutoring and/or to assist students in activating their student accounts located on the My SSCC portal. These class visits resulted in 54 more students receiving the web tutorials and an additional 43 students receiving a Blackboard 9 orientation.

Career & Counseling Services

Conference Presentation

Tom Payton, Coordinator of Career and Counseling Services, attended the Mid-West Glaser Institute Conference and presented on “Adapting Choice Theory and Reality Therapy for Career Counseling.” The conference was held at the University of Detroit and was well received. It demonstrated how career choice could be viewed through the lens of William Glaser’s Choice Theory, defining career satisfaction as the ratio of what one wants in a career versus what one is getting. The goal is to get the client to understand the five basic needs that motivate us—belonging, power, freedom, fun/enjoyment, and survival—and see how they might be expressed for a given client in terms of career. Simply put we are not concerned with what one wants to do but what one wants from a career.

Disability Services

Remote Interpreting Services (RIS)

With the assistance of Dennis Griffith, Director of Information Technology, and Cathy Zile, System Administrator, the Disability Services office implemented Remote Interpreting Services (RIS). Jamie Darling, Staff Interpreter, will be utilizing Collaborate and Instant Messenger through the Blackboard platform to provide interpreting services remotely, instead of relying on an agency interpreter to cover the assignment. This will be first time the college has provided services remotely. The cost savings of agency interpreting services versus RIS is approximately $7,500 for the spring semester.

Mentor Agreement with Sinclair Community College

In the Fall Semester 2012, Jamie Darling added an agreement with Sinclair Community College’s Interpreting Training Program to mentor their interpreting practicum students. Interpreting students, with approval of the SSCC instructors and deaf students, are paired with a working staff interpreter to “learn the ropes” of post-secondary interpreting. This invaluable experience helps promote and support the interpreting profession and at the same time creating a network between SSCC and other community colleges. Thus far, Disability Services has supplied mentoring services for Ohio University Lancaster's Interpreter Training Program (ITP).

Advising & Retention Services

AmeriCorps

The AmeriCorps state audit was conducted Dec. 18 with 100-percent compliance. The program at Southern State received rave reviews from the representative who commented on the extensiveness of the training and the amount of participation the College Completion Coaches have had with their community events (9/11 and Make a Difference Day). Southern State's AmeriCorp College Completion Coaches are also leading the state with the number of students who signed up to receive their services (150).

Nicole Elliott, College Completion Coach at South and Central campuses, was part of a student panel that spoke and answered questions at the OCAN Student Success Symposium on Dec. 14. She was one of five individuals selected to be a part of the panel.

Kylena France, College Completion Coach at North and Central campuses, graduated with her master's degree in education with an emphasis in mental health counseling from Lindsey Wilson College on Dec. 14.

Retention/Perkins

The Campus Performance Report was received from the state for FY12 with 100-percent compliance, meeting all objectives but two (however, still in the 90-percent range of meeting the goal).

Student Activities

Student Frequency Card

In order to encourage students to be more involved in campus life, Student Activities is introducing a Student Frequency Card (SFC) program for spring semester. Students use these cards to collect official stamps for attendance at designated events on each campus. Once a student has received five stamps on his or her card, that student may enter the card in a grand prize drawing to be held at the end of the semester. Four lucky students will win a Google Nexus 7 tablet. The designated activities are posted on the Southern State website, and include athletic events, LRC talks, and special reduced-price bowling nights for students and their families at Hillsboro's Highland Lanes. Since studies show that students who are more actively involved outside of the classroom have improved retention rates over those who simply attend class and go home, this new program supports Southern State's strategic goals.

Men's Soccer

Congratulations to Southern State men's soccer player Michael Theobald for being named to the 2012 All-Ohio Junior College Men's Soccer Team.

Women's Basketball

Women's Basketball is currently 3-8 for the season. The Lady Patriots are represented in the USCAA individual statistical leaders with Megan Sword ranked 17th in points per game, and Mercedes Grisham ranked 16th in points per game, third in rebounds per game, and tied for 7th in steals per game.

Men's Basketball

Men's Basketball is currently 12-2 for the season, and ranked 16th in USCAA Division I Coaches Poll. The Patriots are represented in the USCAA individual statistical leaders with Kam Harris ranked 15th in points per game and 17th in rebounds per game; Diondrey Holt ranked 23rd in points per game; Isiah Walton ranked 25th in points per game, fourth in rebounds per game, 10th in steals per game, and 10th in blocks per game; Brandon Whitlock ranked 18th in rebounds per game and second in blocks per game; Ty Harris ranked first in assists per game and seventh in steals per game; and DreSan Mathis ranked 13th in blocks per game. Congratulations to Brandon Whitlock for being named USCAA's Men's Division I Basketball Player of the Week for Dec. 18.

Student Government Association

First Week Activities—SGA members manned a table in Central Campus's lobby during Tuesday and Wednesday of the first week of the spring term to meet and greet new students. A remote control car was used as an "attention getter" to draw students to SGA's table for conversations. "My SSCC Student Features" brochures were handed out to those students who were interested in knowing how to connect to basic services, including logging into their blackboard accounts, finding their ID numbers, and learning how to access student email. On Wednesday, hot dogs were given out free of charge to students, compliments of SGA.

Discount Card Sales—SGA Discount Cards, which fund the association's annual student scholarship, have been selling better this year. The first month has generated about 40 percent of the required sales to break even and cover the $500 scholarship. About 110 cards were sold during the first month; 250 is the goal. All campus bookstores are carrying the cards which helps students and employees access them.

SGA Student Growth—There are seven active SGA members. Their cumulative GPA is 3.67. Other noticeable achievements include one student informed me that during the last national Student Government Conference he decided he needed to lose weight. That was in July. He now reports having lost more than 30 pounds and is very motivated to continue. Another student, whose wife had graduated from SSCC a few years ago, and then passed away a few months later, informed SGA members that they are his second family. He has gone from a deep depression to one of service and self-worth. He is contemplating running for either Vice President or President this upcoming election.

He also thanked the advisor for giving him the courage to fly for the first time when he attended the conference last July in Orlando. In addition, four of the seven active members are due to graduate this year. Three of those four are looking into moving on to colleges housed here (such as Franklin University, Ohio Christian University, Lindsey Wilson College, etc.) so that they can continue in Student Government.

Human Resources

New Hire

Michelle Abreu has been hired as a full-time faculty member in Respiratory Care in the Academic Affairs division. Her first day teaching full time with Southern State was the beginning of Spring Semester. Ms. Abreu's experience includes working at other colleges as an adjunct instructor, as well as working as a Respiratory Therapist for more than 12 years in the healthcare industry. She has an associate's degree from Kettering College of Medical Arts and a bachelor's degree from Franklin University.

Insurance Committee

As most are aware, insurance costs continue to rise and the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PPACA) poses new challenges in understanding and compliance, which is all new territory for any employer. In order to tackle these issues head-on, the Insurance Committee engaged a third-party consultant, the Hylant Group, to evaluate the college's existing benefit program. Starting in November, the Hylant Group assessed the college's benefit programs considering plan design, claims experience, contribution strategies, vendor services, competitor services, and wellness initiatives. After the analysis, the Hylant Group presented the committee with several recommendations that included savings opportunities, funding options, renewal strategies, and an analysis of ancillary benefits. Being mindful that most of the opportunities would need to be negotiated under the terms of the existing Southern State Education Agreement (SSEA), the Insurance Committee forwarded their recommendations to the College and SSEA leadership for consideration.

OHIO ETHICS COMMISSION FORM NO. OEC-2012 FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE STATEMENT INSTRUCTIONS

QUESTION 1—SOURCES OF INCOME:

For more information on income disclosure, check out FAQs No. 47 to 63.

“Income” includes:

1. “Gross income” as defined in the federal Internal Revenue Code (26 USC 61); and
2. Interest and dividends on all governmental securities, whether federal, state, or local.

Examples of “gross income” include compensation for services (such as salary), interest, rent, and pensions.

Most filers* must list every source of income, regardless of amount, that: (a) they received in 2012; or (b) any other person received in 2012 for their use or benefit. Following each source of income, briefly describe the services you provided in return for the income.

Another person has received income for your “use or benefit” if the source’s purpose for giving compensation to that person is to provide it for your use or for your benefit. For example, if you are a beneficiary of a trust, the trust earns income for your use or benefit. You must list the trust as a source of income and all sources of income received by the trust. For more information about trust disclosure, see Advisory Opinion No. 2005-01.

If you are paid for your public service, include the public agency as a source of income.

You are not required to disclose:

- A. Your spouse’s income sources (although you may benefit from your spouse’s income, he or she usually does not receive income for the purpose of providing it to you); or
- B. The names of clients, patients, or customers of your business or practice (simply disclose the business or practice).

Amount of Income: You must also disclose the amount of income you received from any source, IF:

1. The source is doing or seeking to do business with the public agency you serve; or
2. You earned the income because you provided goods or services to a legislative agent (lobbyist).
[See R.C. 101.70 or contact the Joint Legislative Ethics Committee for further information.]

EXAMPLES:

	Source of Income	Service Provided	Amount
A	Your Public Employer	Your position
B	Smith & Jones Co., L.P.A.	Private law practice
C	ABC Pension Fund	Retirement
D	XYZ Corporation	Stock dividends
E	Friendly National Bank	Interest on savings account	$45.00

* NOTE: These filers disclose only sources of income over $500 and are not required to disclose amounts of income:

- College or university trustees;
- Any official or employee of a city, school district, ESC, or sanitary district if his or her public position is paid less than $16,000; and
- Any candidate for an elective office of a city, school district, or ESC if the office is paid less than $16,000.

QUESTION 2—SOURCES OF GIFTS:

For more information on gift disclosure, check out FAQs No. 64 to 71.

Most filers* list every source of a single gift valued at over $75 or multiple gifts with a total value of over $75 that:

- A. You personally received in 2012; and
- B. Any other person received for your use or benefit in 2012.

Another person has received a gift for your “use or benefit” if the giver’s purpose for giving a gift to that person is to provide it for your use or for your benefit. For example, if your spouse has received a gift and the giver’s purpose is to provide the gift to you, your spouse received the gift for your use or benefit.

Sources of gifts can include individuals, corporations, or groups of individuals or corporations, such as co-workers, not-for-profit organizations, and trade associations.

You are NOT required to disclose:

- A. The nature of the gift;
- B. Campaign contributions;
- C. Gifts received by will or inheritance or by distribution from a trust established by a spouse or ancestor;
- D. Gifts received from any of these family members: spouse, parents, grandparents, children, grandchildren, siblings, nephews, nieces, uncles, aunts, brother- or sisters-in-law, sons- or daughters-in-law, or parents-in-law; or
- E. Gifts from any person to whom you stand in the place of a parent.

* NOTE: These filers disclose only sources of gifts valued at over $500:

- College or university trustees;
- Any official or employee of a city, school district, ESC, or sanitary district if his or her public position is paid less than $16,000; and
- Any candidate for an elective office of a city, school district, or ESC if the office is paid less than $16,000.

Dr. Kevin Boys
President
Southern State Community College

Dear Dr. Boys,

Congratulations, I am pleased to announce that Southern State Community College was awarded for your Ohio Means Internships & Co-ops Ohio South Consortium. Your proposal will provide new opportunities for students to engage in hands-on-learning and deepen relationships with area employers. This award is part of Governor John Kasich's workforce development strategies to align Ohio's higher education curriculum with skills that are in demand by Ohio's businesses.

I'm pleased that we received significant interest in this initiative from across Ohio. Through the review process, your proposal was recommended to be funded at $236,450. All awards are contingent upon Controlling Board approval and this is slated to be reviewed in January 2013.

My hope is that you'll strive to serve students with these funds as soon as possible. Information on the process to receive your award will be forthcoming; staff from the Ohio Board of Regents will work with your program administrator(s) in the coming weeks to enable your program to serve students during the spring semester. If you need additional information or have any questions please contact Zach Waymer, Director of Experiential Learning and Outreach. He can be reached at (614) 728-8858 or zwaymer@regents.state.oh.us.

Thank you again for your proposal and commitment to expand work-based learning in Ohio.

Sincerely,
