

SSCC marks Entrepreneurship Week with info sessions

Entrepreneurship is not about “taking a job,” it’s all about creating your own dream career. In recognition of National Entrepreneurship Week, Southern State Community College is hosting “Let’s Talk Entrepreneurship” informational sessions Feb. 19 and 20 on all four campus locations.

Russ Brewer, SSCC Enterprise Center Coordinator, will host the sessions which will cover what it takes to be an entrepreneur, how to get started, and how to write a business plan. Brewer will also provide information on Southern State’s two entrepreneurship programs—an associate of applied science degree and a non-credit certificate.

The informal info sessions will be held on Central Campus (100 Hobart Drive, Hillsboro) from 9 a.m. to 12 noon on Tuesday, Feb. 19; on South Campus (12681 U.S. Route 62, near Sardinia) from 2 to 5 p.m. on Tuesday, Feb 19; on Fayette Campus (1270 U.S. Route 62 SW, Washington C.H.) from 9 a.m. to 12 noon on Wednesday, Feb. 20; and on North Campus (1850 Davids Drive, Wilmington) from 2 to 5 p.m. on Wednesday, Feb. 20.
