

Early Education students mark SSCC degree completion

CUTLINE: Eleven students in Southern State Community College's early education program completed their practicum experience and earned their associate of applied science degrees. Those marking the successful completion of the program include (l-r) Bobbi Stringer of Hillsboro, Elizabeth Stevens of Wilmington, Shelby Edmonson of Wilmington, Erin Spiess Parker of Washington Court House, Micayla Daniel of Loveland, Cecilia Woods of Washington Court House, Jessica Stanfield of Greenfield, Carli Zurface of Washington Court House, Mary Beth Goolsby of Washington Court House, Kayla Kimberly of Hillsboro, and Brianna Williams of Jamestown (not picture). For more information about the two-year degree program, please visit www.sccc.edu/academics/associate/early-childhood-education.shtml or call 1-800-628-7722.

#