

“Street Drugs Today” seminar April 17 at Southern State

A free seminar on “Street Drugs Today: Taking Back Our Families & Communities” will be held 6:30-8:30 p.m. Thursday, April 17, in the Edward K. Daniels Auditorium on Southern State Community College’s Central Campus, 100 Hobart Drive, Hillsboro. Immediately following the presentation will be a question-and-answer session and reception.

What can you do when you see drugs in action? What do you do if you find this issue within your own home? According to Sgt. Randy Sanders, we can learn how to work together to help our communities.

This free event – co-sponsored by SSCC’s Student Government Association, the Highland County Sheriff’s Office, and the US 23 Major Crimes Task Force – is designed for a broad audience. The message will be particularly relevant to parents, teachers, counselors, and those working in mental health, education, healthcare, domestic violence, and law enforcement.

Currently detailed with the Highland County Sheriff’s Office, Sgt. Sanders has worked in law enforcement for 32 years, over 20 of those years in narcotics enforcement. He has served as director of both the US 23 Major Crimes Task Force and the Ohio Organized Crime Task Force.
