SOUTHERN STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
PRESS RELEASE
August 15, 2014

SSCC Theatre to hold auditions for “The Importance of Being Earnest”

SSCC Theatre is pleased to announce upcoming auditions for the fall production of Oscar Wilde’s “The Importance of Being Earnest.” Open to community members and students, auditions will be held 6:30 p.m. Friday, Aug. 29, in the Edward K. Daniels Auditorium on Southern State Community College’s Central Campus, 100 Hobart Drive, Hillsboro.

Oscar Wilde’s classic is a delight from the first cucumber sandwich, as Jack’s double life catches up with him. The problems are resolved in an extremely charming and quite unexpected way as Jack and Algernon discover the importance of being earnest while answering to the name of Ernest.

Those interested in auditioning should prepare and memorize a one- to two-minute comedic monologue. Those interested in working available crew positions will be asked to complete an interview the night of auditions. If you’re interested in auditioning, but unavailable to attend the audition date, please contact director Rainee Angles to schedule an alternate audition prior to Aug. 29.

“The Importance of Being Earnest,” directed by Rainee Angles, will be performed Nov. 7-9. For more information about available roles and a rehearsal schedule, please visit the audition page at www.sscctheatre.com.
