

SSCC to perform Nov. 16 Veterans Day concert

The Southern State Community Band and Southern State Singers will honor our nation's heroes with a Veterans Day concert 3 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 16, in the Edward K. Daniels Auditorium on Southern State Community College's Central Campus, 100 Hobart Drive, Hillsboro. The concert is free and open to the public.

The band, under the direction of Dr. Brian Siemers, will present a variety of patriotic music, from favorite Sousa marches to a medley of armed forces tunes. The choir, under the direction of John Glaze, will sing a variety of patriotic songs.

The concert will also feature the Paint Valley ROTC Drill Team under the direction of Sgt. John Wilson, and the Red Cross will host a booth for guests who would like to sign Christmas cards to be sent to local veterans, active military personnel, and their families.

The band and choir include both students and community members, and welcome new members at any time. To learn more about the Southern State Community Band, please contact Siemers at bsiemers@sscc.edu; or about the Southern State Singers, contact Glaze at jglaze@hcf.com. For more information about fine arts, music and theatre activities at Southern State, please visit www.sccc.edu/students/index.shtml.

"The Southern State Patriots would like to invite you to attend this special event as we honor our greatest Patriots – our military veterans," said Dr. Siemers.

#