SSCC Theatre presents "Becky's New Car" Nov. 6-8

SSCC Theatre will present "Becky's New Car," at 7:30 p.m. on both Friday, Nov. 6, and Saturday, Nov. 7, and a matinee at 3:30 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 8, in the Edward K. Daniels Auditorium on the Central Campus of Southern State Community College, 100 Hobart Drive, Hillsboro.

Have you ever been tempted to flee your own life? Becky Foster (played by Paula Campagna) is caught in middle age, middle management, and in a middling marriage—with no prospects for change on the horizon. Then one night, a socially inept and grief-struck millionaire stumbles into the car dealership where Becky works. She is offered nothing short of a new life, and the audience is offered a chance to ride shotgun in a way that most plays wouldn't dare.

"Becky's New Car" also features the acting talents of Jacob Bice, Madison Hatfield, Mark Holmes, Bronwyn Jones, Bryan Kessinger, and Bob Lambert.

The production team includes Rainee Angles (director/production), Abraham Martin (production), Laura Martin (costumes), and Benjamin Gullett (public relations). Cindi Anderson is the stage manager, and Melissa Griffith is the assistant stage manager. Fulfilling other crew positions are Brent Angles, Charlotte Brown, Coni Coleman, Heather Cumbo, Katlyn Edenfield, Adomas Fabin, and Callie Fryman.

Tickets for "Becky's New Car" are on sale now and can be purchased for only $8 by visiting www.ssctheatre.com. At the door, tickets start at $10. Credit cards are accepted for online purchases and at the door. Seats for this production will be reserved, so it is recommended that tickets be purchased early. Season tickets for the 12th season, which also includes "The Great Gatsby" and "Vanya, Sasha, Masha, and Spike," are also now on sale starting at $21.
