

SSCC band to perform Nov. 19 Veterans Day concert

The Southern State Community Band will honor our nation's veterans with a Veterans Day concert 3 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 19, in the Edward K. Daniels Auditorium on Southern State Community College's Central Campus, 100 Hobart Drive, Hillsboro.

Tickets are free, but limited. To receive tickets, contact any band member or stop by the SSCC Information Desk at Central Campus.

The concert will feature a variety of patriotic music, including familiar strains from "Stars and Stripes Forever," "God Bless the U.S.A.," and "Let Freedom Ring," as well as several new arrangements.

The Southern State Community Band was formed more than 10 years ago and, since its first days as an ensemble, has performed annual concerts in honor of our veterans. Founding member Corrine Erickson was a member of the first all-women military W.A.F. Band.

The band includes both students and community members, and welcomes new members at any time. Rehearsals are held 6:30 p.m. Thursdays in the auditorium. For more information, please contact Brian Siemers at bsiemers@sscc.edu or 800-628-7722, ext. 2634.
