SOUTHERN STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
PRESS RELEASE

SSCC Band to perform Music Concert

The Southern State Community Band will present its annual Spring Concert 2 p.m. Sunday, April 28, in the Edward K. Daniels Auditorium on Southern State Community College's Central Campus, 100 Hobart Drive, Hillsboro. The concert is free and open to the public.

The band will perform a unique and special event this spring with an outer space themed concert and a special appearance featuring R2D2. Music selections will include themes from sci-fi movies and T.V. shows like Star Wars, Star Trek, E.T. and Dr. Who plus some other "space oriented" pieces.

Under the direction of Dr. Brian Siemers, an instructor at the college, the Southern State Community Band is open to both students and community members. The Spring Concert is the last of this year's series, but the SSCB always welcomes new members. Rehearsals will begin again this fall at 6:30 p.m. on Thursdays in the Edward K. Daniels Auditorium. There are no auditions and all are welcome to participate, including ability levels from beginners to professional musicians.

Those interested in band and choir events at the college, please visit www.sccc.edu/students/music.shtml.
