

H&R Block Mt Orab Gain Real-World Tax Experience This Season!

Are you an accounting or finance student looking to bridge the gap between classroom theory and professional practice?

Our local H&R Block office is seeking motivated, detail-oriented students to join our team for the upcoming tax season. This is more than just a seasonal job—it is a hands-on mentorship opportunity where you will work with real tax data, learn industry-standard software, and develop professional client-service skills. Why Join Us?

- Professional Development: Gain practical experience with tax law, software, and compliance.
- Mentorship: Work under the guidance of experienced tax professionals.
- Flexible Scheduling: We understand you have a class schedule. We offer a structured, seasonal environment that works around your academic commitments.
- Career Advancement: Add a recognized industry certification and hands-on experience to your resume before you graduate.

What We Are Looking For:

- A student currently enrolled in an Accounting, Finance, or related business program.
- Strong attention to detail and a commitment to accuracy.
- Professionalism and the ability to handle sensitive client information with care.
- Reliability and a willingness to learn our proprietary systems.

How to Apply:

We are looking for students who are ready to learn and contribute. If you are interested in a rewarding, fast-paced, and professional experience, let's talk!
