Terminology

“He” and “She”
- Use “she” throughout the presentation
- Anyone can be a victim of sexual assault
- Not minimizing the impact on victims of all gender, sexual orientation, race or religion

“Victim” and “Survivor”
- Will be using these today interchangeably
- Victim tends to refer to early impact
- Survivor tends to refer to later periods of recovery
- We try not to use labels
THE BASICS
What is sexual assault?

- Sexual assault is any type of sexual contact or behavior that occurs without the explicit consent of the recipient.
- Falling under the definition of sexual assault:
  - Forced sexual intercourse (Rape)
  - Forcible sodomy
  - Child molestation
  - Incest
  - Fondling
  - Attempted rape

The statistics

- Every 107 seconds another American is sexually assaulted
  - 1 hour = 33 people
- 1 in 6 women has been a victim of attempted or completed rape in her lifetime
- 1 in 33 men has been a victim of attempted or completed rape in his lifetime
- 80% are under the age of 30, 44% are under the age of 18 and 15% are under the age of 12
- 93% of juvenile sexual assault victims know their attacker
- 68% of sexual assaults are not reported to the police
- 98% of rapists will never spend a day in jail
Consent
What is consent?

- A voluntary, sober, imaginative, enthusiastic, creative, wanted, informed, mutual, honest, and verbal agreement
- An active agreement: Consent cannot be coerced
- A process, which must be asked for every step of the way; if you want to move to the next level of sexual intimacy, just ask
- Never implied and cannot be assumed, even in the context of a relationship. Just because you are in a relationship does not mean that you have permission to have sex with your partner
- A person who is intoxicated cannot legally give consent. If you're too drunk to make decisions and communicate with your partner, you're too drunk to consent
- The absence of a "no" doesn't mean "yes"
- Both people should be involved in the decision to have sex
- An important part of healthy sexuality
what does CONSENT look like?
Do both people agree to any kind of sex act?
Q: Are both people able to consent?

Consent is not possible.
The best way to get consent is to ask.

- ONLY YES means CONSENT
- NOT SAYING NO means yes
- NO means NO
Saying yes to one activity doesn’t mean consent to all activities.
Non-verbal Communication

- Remember, an absence of "no" does not mean "yes."
- Name some ways a person can say “no” with their body?
"Never assume. Ask before you proceed. A good lover is a good listener. A bad listener is at best a bad lover and at worst a rapist."
if it’s not a
HELL YES!
it’s a no.

Bystander
What is a bystander?

A bystander, or witness, is anyone who sees a dangerous or potentially dangerous situation. Bystanders may or may not know what to do, or may expect someone else to do something to help.
What hurts the most is not the cruelty of the oppressor but the silence of the bystander.
- Elie Wiesel
Don’t be a Bystander

What can you do to help someone in need?
Tips for being an active bystander

- Be the “Fake Friend”
- Call out the harasser/offender
- Make your presence felt
- Check in with the target
- Cause a distraction
- Be a role model to others

“Whenever one person stands up and says, ‘Wait a minute, this is wrong,’ it helps other people to do the same.” – Gloria Steinem
I always wondered why somebody didn't do something about that, then I realized I'm that somebody.
Rape Myths
What is a myth?

A myth is a false idea that many people believe to be true.
Rape Myth

- Rape myths are assumptions about the act of rape and the victims of rape that frequently reduce empathy for -- and even shift blame to -- the victim. Often unproven or wrong, rape myths are widely accepted.
Lara Logan
Media Perpetuates the Rape Myth

- Several media outlets quickly criticized her physical appearance and career choice as reasons why she was raped
  - “…. known for her shocking good looks and ballsy knack for pushing her way to the heart of the action,…” (LA Weekly)
  - “…. at the same time using her Hollywood good looks and spotlight to push a more hard-hitting agenda.” (LA Weekly)
  - “OMG if I were her captors and there were no sanctions for doing so? I would totally rape her.” (MoFo Politics)
  - “…. girls who happen to fall on the gorgeous side of the fight for truthful journalism.” (LA Weekly)
  - “Earth to liberated women: when you display legs, thighs, or cleavage, some liberated men will see it as a sign you feel good about yourself and your sexuality. But most men will see it as a sign you want to get laid. Forewarned is forearmed.” (Dan Rottenberg)

How to combat rape myths

- Know your facts
- Understand what consent means
- Think beyond gender and socioeconomic stereotypes
- Know that no one asks to be raped
Rape Culture
What is rape culture?

- A culture where rape is pervasive and normalized due to societal attitudes about gender and sexuality.
“Everywhere you turn there's condoning, trivializing, and eroticizing rape, and collectively it sets a tone that says this is no big deal or this is what women deserve.”

Lynn Phillips, a Lecturer with the University of Massachusetts-Amherst Communication Department.
RAPE CULTURE

- Blaming the victim (“She asked for it!”)
- Trivializing sexual assault (“Boys will be boys!”)
- Sexually explicit jokes
- Tolerance of sexual harassment
- Inflating false rape report statistics
- Publicly scrutinizing a victim’s dress, mental state, motives and history
- Gratuitous gendered violence in movies and television
- Defining “manhood” as dominant and sexually aggressive
- Defining “womanhood” as submissive and sexually passive
- Pressure on men to “score”
- Pressure on women to not appear “cold”
- Assuming only promiscuous women get raped
- Assuming that men don’t get raped or that only “weak” men get raped
- Refusing to take rape accusations seriously
- Teaching women to avoid getting raped instead of teaching men not to rape
Rape culture is telling girls and women to be careful about what you wear, how you wear it, how you carry yourself, where you walk, when you walk there, with whom you walk, whom you trust, what you do, where you do it, with whom you do it, what you drink, how much you drink, whether you make eye contact, if you're alone, if you're with a stranger, if you're in a group, if you're in a group of strangers, if it's dark, if the area is unfamiliar, if you're carrying something, how you carry it, what kind of shoes you're wearing in case you have to run, what kind of purse you carry, what jewelry you wear, what time it is, what street it is, what environment it is, how many people you sleep with, what kind of people you sleep with, who your friends are, to whom you give your number, who's around when the delivery guy comes, to get an apartment where you can see who's at the door before they can see you, to check before you open the door to the delivery guy, to own a dog or a dog-sound-making machine, to get a roommate, to take self-defense, to always be alert always pay attention always watch your back always be aware of your surroundings and never let your guard down for a moment lest you be sexually assaulted and if you are and didn't follow all the rules it's your fault.
TEN RAPE PREVENTION TIPS

1. Don’t put drugs in women’s drinks.
2. When you see a woman walking by herself, leave her alone.
3. If you pull over to help a woman whose car has broken down, remember not to rape her.
4. If you are in an elevator and a woman gets in, don’t rape her.
5. When you encounter a woman who is asleep, the safest course of action is to not rape her.
6. Never creep into a woman’s home through an unlocked door or window, or spring out at her from between parked cars, or rape her.
7. Remember, people go to the laundry room to do their laundry. Do not attempt to molest someone who is alone in the laundry room.
8. Use the Buddy System! If it is inconvenient for you to stop yourself from raping women, ask a trusted friend to accompany you at all times.
9. Carry a rape whistle. If you find that you are about to rape someone, blow the whistle until someone comes to stop you.
10. Don’t forget: Honesty is the best policy. When asking a woman out on a date, don’t pretend that you are interested in her as a person; tell her straight up that you expect to be raping her later. If you don’t communicate your intentions, the woman may take it as a sign that you do not plan to rape her.
