

OPEN HOUSE

EXPERIENCE CUTTING-EDGE LAW ENFORCEMENT TRAINING TECHNOLOGY FOR FREE!

Thursday, November 21st, 2024
3:30 PM - 5:00 PM | Room 187

Southern State, Central Campus | 100 Hobart Dr, Hillsboro

What does MILO stand for? MILO = Multiple Interactive Learning Objectives. The MILO Range Theater system provides a fully immersive training environment that will increase trainee realism and offer real life training scenarios.

OPEN SIMULATIONS, FOOD & GIVEAWAYS!

Who should attend?

- Potential Students
- Current Law Enforcement
- Community Members

FREE
for you or your department to use
for all training needs!

What's Happening...

Hands-On Experience

Step into the MILO training simulator and immerse yourself in realistic scenarios faced by law enforcement officers such as active shooter situations, disorderly and intoxicated individuals, domestic disturbances, and more!

Meet the Experts

Connect with our dedicated instructors and learn about the importance of simulation training in modern policing.

Insights & Innovations

Discover how the MILO system enhances decision-making, communication, and critical thinking skills for officers.

Community Engagement

Find out how we prepare officers to serve and protect our community effectively.

Questions?

Amy McClellan at amcclellan@sscc.edu

For program information - Doug Daniels at jdaniels@sscc.edu

SOUTHERN STATE
LAW ENFORCEMENT